Last Meeting with Flower City

Riveters SC 2, Flower City 1872 0
Highmark Stadium, Pittsburgh, Pa. • May 30, 2025
Regular season

Under a steady downpour from the opening whistle, the Riveters got first-half goals from Alexis Tylenda and Olivia Damico to pick up the first home win in team history. Pauline Nelles made four saves to record her second clean sheet of the season.

GAME 2 - QUICK STRIKES

- The Riveters were the 2025 Great Forest Division Champions, advancing to the USL W League Playoffs in their very first season.
- In six regular-season home matches since their inception, the Riveters have allowed only one goal — a penalty kick — on their home field.
- Center back Piper Coffield wore the captain's armband and scored the first goal of 2026 last Saturday against Buffalo in her first competitive match since last year's USL W League Playoffs. Coffield returned to the field after missing the college season with an ACL injury.
- Bella Vozar returns this season after being the only player to play all 11 matches for the team in 2025. The right back also recorded her first two assists for the Riveters in Saturday's win.
- Between Coffield, Vozar, center back Taylor Green (goal) and left back Brielle LaBerge (two assists), the Riveters' starting back four Saturday totaled six goal contributions.
- Ellen Molloy also added a pair of goal contributions in the opener, assisting on Coffield's opener with a corner kick and scoring the second goal of the match.
- Midfielder Shannon Studer also found the net in her Riveters' debut, giving the team four first-time goal scorers overall.
- Sabrina Bryan scored the team's last goal Saturday as a substitute. That gives Bryan four goals total with the club, which trails only the six goals of last year's top scorer, Tanum Nelson.
- Goalkeeper Bailey Herfurth made three saves in the opener for the clean sheet, her second with the Riveters after shutting out Erie on June 15, 2025.
- Eight players total made team debuts Saturday: Green, LaBerge, Molloy, Studer, Lola Abraham, Emme Butera, Gabby Lamparty and Emily Hanrahan.
- Three players on this year's Riveters team have made senior international appearances for their country — Ariana Borneo (Trinidad & Tobago), Makenna Dominguez (El Salvador) and Molloy (Republic of Ireland) — while Sierra Dupre has represented the United States as a youth international.
- Three players off the 2025 Riveters are now playing professionally: Tessa Dellarose (Chicago Stars, NWSL), Abi Hugh (Fort Lauderdale United, USL Super League) and Olivia Damico (Shelbourne FC, League of Ireland).

Why the Riveters?

The name of the Pittsburgh Riveters Soccer Club was selected as the result of a fan vote that occurred in 2024 after four finalists were decided. The name "Riveters" won a clear majority in that vote, making that the name of the Pittsburgh's new W League team.

The Riveters name harkens back to the World War II image of "Rosie the Riveter," the most famous version of which came from the "We Can Do It!" poster commissioned in 1943 by Pittsburgh-based Westinghouse Electric Company. Since then, the image of Rosie has expanded to represent more than the war effort; it has become an emblem of women's empowerment and their contribution to the work force at large.

HEAD COACH SCOTT GIBSON

Scott Gibson was named the first head coach in Riveters history on Sept. 25, 2024, and he successfully oversaw the formation of the inaugural team before guiding them to a 6-2-3 record in their first season, winning the Great Forest Division and advancing to the USL W League Playoffs.

Gibson is the longtime Director of the Riverhounds Academy, a role he has held since the Academy's launch in 2007, and he also the head of the Academy's girls program in the Elite Clubs National League. He has played a part in the development of more than 100 young women who have progressed to college soccer careers, including top athletes at elite programs such as North Carolina, Notre Dame, Pitt, Rutgers and Indiana. More than a half dozen girls from the Hounds Academy have been invited to U.S. Youth National Team camps, and in the past year and a half, two have represented the United States in competition — Tessa Dellarose in the U-20 age group and Sierra Dupre at the U-16 level.

Experience:
Second season

A native of Saltburn, England, Gibson came to the U.S. to play collegiately at Duquesne University. After his college career, Gibson had a stint as a pro player with the Pittsburgh Riverhounds in the USL Second Division, while at the same time moving into his role as Riverhounds Academy Director. As the director, Gibson has overseen the growth of the Academy from its roots strictly as a training program to a comprehensive developmental and team model serving more than 1,100 boys and girls annually.

Date Hired:
Sept. 25, 2024

Hometown:
Saltburn, England

Teams that Gibson coached include the first Hounds girls team, which in 2013 won the U-15 US Club Soccer National Championship, as well as the 2007 Girls team that reached the final of the ECNL North American Cup in 2023. He also served as an assistant coach with the Riverhounds pro team during the 2014 season, and he has been selected to coach in the ECNL's National Selection Game — all-star events at the league's annual college showcases — in Houston in 2023 and Dallas in 2024.
